FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 22, 1883.

The Fannie Freese came up last night with a good trip, and will leave this afternoon at one o'clock for Louisville.

Mr. Darsie will preach to-morrow morning on "A Religion of Joy," a sermon appropriate to the Christmas season. To-morrow night by request he will preach on "The Ninth of Romans." All are invited.

Messrs. Jake and Joe Swigert have refused $8,000 for yearling filly Lady Winston. She is by Virgil, dam Lady Way by Imp. Eclipse. Joe says she is the fastest colt for her age in the country, and he is holding on for $15,000.

In order to supply a want long felt by the tobacco planters of this county, Messrs. Rodman & Steel have commenced the manufacture of tobacco hogheads at their mill in this city. Our farmers should get their prices before going elsewhere.

Mr. Jas. W. Blackburn formerly of this city, has been appointed to a position in the folding department of the house of Representatives at Washington by door-keeper Wintersmith, who was also a former resident of this city, but now lives in Texas. Salary $2,000 a year.

Rev. J. W. Pugh has received and accepted a call to take charge of the Presbyterian Church at Hopewell, Indiana. His daughters, Misses Mary, Sadie, Ada and Lizzie, spent Wednesday night in this city with friends on their way from Virginia to their new home in Indiana.

The parties to whom the contract was let for furnishing the gas fixtures of the Opera House are slow coming to time, and are causing considerable inconvenience, as the Hall is all ready to be opened on Thursday, with the exception of putting up the chandelier and bracket lights.

From December 22d to January 1 the Kentucky Central Railroad will sell excursion tickets to all points on its road at extremely low rates, good returning until January 24, 1884. Persons wishing to spend the holidays with friends along the line of that road should bear this in mind.

Little Harris Johnson, son of Col. J. Stohard Johnson, while handling some gun powder Friday afternoon of last week, placed some of it on the ground and ignited it, when it flashed up in his face, burning his eyes so badly that he had to be led home by his playmates, being unable to see.

We learn from an exchange that Capt. R. H. Fitzhugh started on Wednesday of last week from Carrollton to make a horse-back reconnaissance of the country between that place and Lexington with a view to ascertain the probable best route for a railroad between the two points and make a "rough estimate" of its cost. Judging from our own reservoir the estimate will not be anything like so "rough" as the actual cost.

It would be a good idea for the committee having the hall in charge to open it for a review of the scenery and all arrangements before an audience of competent critics, so that if any changes are manifestly necessary, they could be made before the regular opening.—Yonnan

We object to the above for the reason that if the suggestions of all the critics, who consider themselves competent, were taken and acted upon it would require four hundred years to get the Opera House in readiness to be opened. Be ahead and open it as soon as possible and let the "critics" go to thunder. The people of Frankfort are spoiling to see a first class entertainment in it.

On Tuesday afternoon Deputy Sheriff John Dickson, of Leslie county, who came down to bring a lot of prisoners to the Penitentiary, while at the boarding-house of Mr. J. M. Dooley, on Main street, attempted to take off his pistol belt and in doing so the weapon slipped from his holster, fell on the floor, the hammer striking first, and exploded one of the cartridges, the ball passing up through the calf of his right leg, struck the fleshy part of the leg above the knee and continuing upward, passed through the right arm near the shoulder, striking the bone in such a manner that amputation will be necessary and struck the ceiling. The pistol was a forty-four calibre, and judging from the danger it did most shoot with fearful force. Dr. E. E. Hume was called in and dressed the unfortunate man's wounds.

Fish, game and all the delicacies of the season prepared in the highest style of the art at the Capital Oyster Parlor, Sower & Ahler, Main street.

On Saturday night Mr. Charles Mandhler fell on the stairs and sprained his left wrist, and on Thursday he slipped and fell on the pavement in front of his mother's store and sprained his left ankle, and is now confined to the house.

While at Jet's Station Monday morning, the Roman man hurt his foot so that he has not been able to get around as lively as usual in search of news this week. Suit has not been entered against the Railroad Company, however.

The following officers were elected by Frankfort Lodge, No. 10, Knights of Honor, on Tuesday evening for the ensuing year: C. Shubinski, Dictator. C. A. Nelson, Vice Dictator. A. Szymanski, Assistant Dictator. Logan McKee, Recorder. Philip Selbert, Financial Reporter. Geo. Salender, Treasurer. Dr. Dan'l Guber, Chaplain. Alex. McEwan, Guide. Robert Gore, Guardian. Wm. H. Brinkworth, Sentinel. A. T. Todd, Past Dictator.

Col. Ike Wingate is confined to his home at Woodlake with rheumatism.

Miss Jennie Davall has returned from a visit to St. Louis and Louisville.

Mr. E. W. Hines will leave to-day for Bowling Green to spend the holidays.

Mr. J. Howard Gray is at home from Washington City to spend the holidays.

Capt. Sam. M. Gaines will leave Monday for Hopkinsville to hang up his stockings.

Mr. Frank Rodman and bride arrived in this city Saturday and have taken rooms at his father's.

Judge Jas. H. Bowden left Monday morning for Russellville, to spend the holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Duncan left Tuesday morning for Bowling Green to spend the holidays.

Mrs. M. D. Averill, of this county, returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit to relatives in Woodford.

Miss Maud Holmes will leave to-morrow afternoon to visit friends and relatives in Danville and Lexington.

Miss Anna Richardson is lying very ill at the residence of her brother, Mr. Jas. A. Richardson, near this city.

Messrs. Sallie Lawler and Agnes Nicol returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit to friends in Woodford county.

Elder J. K. P. South, of this county, has been called to take charge of the Christian Church at Stamping Ground Scott county.

Mr. Campbell E. James and bride arrived in this city Monday afternoon and have taken rooms at Mr. N. W. Casey's, South Side.

Mrs. Thos. Gilson and children, of Tucker Station, left Tuesday for Fort Worth, Texas, to join her husband, who has located there.

Miss Mary Gray, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. F. V. Gray, in this city, left for her home in Louisville Wednesday morning.

Rev. J. McC. Blaney, of Buffalo, New York, will arrive in this city next week, and it is expected that he will supply the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church during absence of the pastor.

Mr. Albert H. Crutcher is visiting his parents in Belle Point. Having given up his position with Messrs. R. N. Arner & Co., in Cincinnati, he will go to Louisville the first of the year to commence the practice of law.

MARRIED.

PRYOR—JONES.—Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, Mr. Wm. Pryor, of Penitentiary county, and Miss Laura Jones, Rev. J. Booth performing the ceremony.

Mr. Pryor, who is formerly, of Paris, is a nephew of Dr. Wm. Pryor, of this county, and is a young man of irreproachable character and splendid business capacity. The bride, a daughter of Mr. Jeff. Jones, is a beautiful blonde and a young lady of superior intelligence and refinement. They left immediately for a visit to relatives in Ohio, going by way of Louisville and Cincinnati. The very best wishes of a host of friends attend them.

NEW STYLES! NEW STYLES!!

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Antioch.

Miss Sallie Harper got the young folks a dance on the night of the 11th.

The singing class met at Mr. Gavhart's last Tuesday night, and had a delightful time.

Where are the poets? The snow, the beautiful snow. Don't let anyone about the snow, they know it.

Dr. Davis is now attending on little Jimmie Updyke, who is improving slowly. Hang out your shingle, Doc.

As far as we have heard from this section all are opposed to a tax for a new jail, so draw in your horns, Messrs. Magistrates.

Mr. Mat. Chisolm has rented the Meagher house on the creek, and removed his little wife to it. He says he wants all those correspondents to quit writing about him, and let him have peace.

Some young ladies and gentlemen, who were at Rob Owens' last Sunday night, started home and just before reaching the school-house the storm burst upon them in all its fury, the snow blowing full in their faces. They could not see their way and had to return to Mr. Owens'.

Mince meat, fresh fruits, nuts, cakes, confectionery and Christmas supplies at Sower & Ahler's, Main street.

Wigginton.

Born.—To Mr. J. N. Bridges and wife, a son.

Several parties are spoken of for Christmas week.

Miss Eliza Sharp is visiting her sister in Jessamine county.

Miss Lizzie Parker will reopen her school on the first of January.

The turnpike through this place has been completed to the Owen county line.

Mr. John Gaines went to Cincinnati the first of the week to lay in a stock of Christmas goods.

Messrs. Spencer O. and W. P. Wigginton spent several days in Lexington last week visiting friends.

Mr. C. Maltis and Miss Sallie Newton were married at the bride's father last Sunday, by Rev. J. T. Burton.

It is said that a lively row took place at a party at Peter Wiley's last week, in which knock downs were indulged in freely.

Small-pox is on the increase at Minorsville. Six new cases are reported in one family and one in another. So far as we have been able to learn none of them have proved fatal as yet.

E. Power has elegant toilet sets, coal vases, coal hods and fire sets suitable for Christmas presents.

Bridgeport.

The book agent has been around this week.

Eqg. J. B. Russell made a trip to Louisville this week.

Mrs. Maggie Jackson has been quite sick for several days.

Mrs. Sallie Roberts is lying very ill at her home near this place.

Miss Mary Tribble, of Shelby county, is the guest of Mrs. Rose Terry.

Mr. Jos. Terry has returned home from a visit to relatives in Madison county.

Rev. E. S. Alderman, of North Carolina, preached at South Benson Church last Sunday.

Miss Emma Jenkins has returned home from a two weeks' visit to Mrs. Collins, White Hall.

Little Miss Nellie Thomas, of Farmdale, is in the village, spending some time visiting relatives.

If we were an editor we would feel like knocking down the first person that said to us, "Oh the snow, the beautiful snow."

Mr. Sarah Freeman and Master Willie Chambers have returned home from Louisville, where have been in attendance at the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ella.

We are now prepared to believe the teachers in this county at least are willing to accept their rights. We hope results one source from our meeting to-day that will be of lasting benefit to the teacher.

One of Mrs. Rebecca Crockett's cows fell in her ice house last Sunday night. She was, however, rescued from her perilous situation by the assistance of several neighbors, without any serious consequences.

New recruits this place last Wednesday from Texas that one of Mr. Sam. Bradley's sons, 9 years old, fell from a tree and was instantly killed. Deep sympathy is manifested for the family by this entire vicinity.

A Jockey Club, as we are informed, will be organized at this place Christmas day. Those desiring to engage in the horse trading business can be accommodated any time during the holidays. Bring on your jugs, boys.

Between the Bridges.

What a jolly time the boys are having sleigh riding; but oh! how cold.

Mr. John Julian and wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Roach last Wednesday.

Messrs. Tom McGrath and J. Reeves passed through our town Wednesday evening.

Mr. Alex. Julian, Jr., was at his old home in this neighborhood last Saturday and Sunday.

The school teacher and photographer made a visit last Sunday to some friends in Anderson county.

Owing to the extreme cold weather, Miss Hattie Tinsley did not return to Frankfort to school this week.

Charley Johnson can no longer boast of tracking the last party, as Owen Tinsley now has the nose male.

When was Tom Bailey ordained a Baptist preacher? He preached at the Baptist Church one night last week.

Miss Jennie Darlington talks of going to Louisville next week to spend the Christmas with some friends in the city.

We need a bridge across main Benson in the west corner of Franklin county, near the line between Franklin and Anderson.

Mr. Wm. Lowen killed three hogs that weighed twenty hundred pounds. Good for uncle Billy, he understands raising hogs.

Mr. R. Wiggs and her daughters, Misses Aline and Laura, with several other ladies spent last Thursday with Mrs. Judge Brown.

Joe Newkirk, of Mercer county, stayed one night last week at Esq. Tinsley's with nineteen hundred pounds, which he was driving to the Louisville market.

Miss Mary Tribble, of Shelby county, is spending this week with her aunt, Mrs. Joe Terry, while Mr. Terry is in Madison county on a visit to his brother John.

Misses Lela and Hattie Tinsley attended the social given by Mr. Leslie Collins last Friday night and report a pleasant trip, an elegant supper and a splendid time generally.

The cold weather and severe snow-storms do not prevent Mr. Charley Julian from going back and forth daily, attending his stock on each of his two farms, one in Franklin and the other in Shelby.

Mr. Will Elliott has lately had the farm belonging to his wife and sister-in-law, in Shelby county, divided, and as the part on which the improvements are told to his sister-in-law, he will proceed at once to the erection of a residence.

Mr. Frank O'Neal, of Paris, Ky., was in our neighborhood last Tuesday, and rented for his mother the brick house lately purchased by Lanta Armstrong. Frank is strictly a business gentleman and has a kind and generous heart that gives him in fond remembrance of his kind old mother, who richly deserves and highly appreciates his generosity.

Esq's Russell, Moore and Tinsley were appointed by the Court of Claims as a committee to sell the present poor-house in this county and select another that can be made more self-sustaining and thereby relieve the tax-payers of such an enormous pauper expense. They are of the opinion that a poor-house farm by proper management can be made self-sustaining.

PUNCH AND JUDY.

Stoney Creek.

Mr. Ierni Rodgers spent Saturday and Sunday on Stoney Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Witt are quite feeble from the effects of chills.

Mr. Francis Brawner has been very much indisposed for several days.

Mr. John LeCompte visited relatives at Pleasantville, Henry county, last week.

Mr. Jack Witt and wife, of Woodford county, are visiting his parents, on Stoney Creek, this week.

Mr. F. M. Smith spent several days in Henry county this week, near Eminence, prospecting for a farm.

Mr. Jesse Smith, of Owen, who has been spending several weeks in this vicinity, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Dick Moore, while trying to put a handle in an ax, cut his hand so very badly that he has been unable to use it for some time.

Our singing society met at Mr. Nathan Moore's Sunday night last week, at Mr. Jesse Smith's on Thursday night and at Mr. F. M. Smith's Saturday night, were highly entertained at all three places, for which we are indebted under renewed obligations for the kind hospitality shown us while assembled at their homes.

Mr. Editor:

This will be my last letter from Stoney Creek as your correspondent, as my school will close on the 24th and I shall not remain longer in this vicinity at present, but I hope you will get some one to fill my place, as I shall have the ROUNDABOUT sent to me wherever I go, in order to hear from the different localities in Franklin county, and especially from Stoney Creek. I have endeavored to discharge my duty to the satisfaction of your many readers and in justice to myself. I now bid you adieu, thanking you for the space you granted me for the many letters I have written you from this place.

I remain yours as ever,

J. R. FEARS.

DISTRICT NO. 7, FRANKLIN CO., KY.

Editor Roundabout:

As I am a common teacher in the schools of this State I feel it my duty to express views in regard to the $275,000, more or less, which is actually due the children of this State, but by some hook or crook has been otherwise disbursed. In justice to myself, my country, and the poor children of this State do I grasp my pen to agitate a question that I know is right, and I believe that the idea which I advance upon this question will meet with the approval of all who are friendly to the cause of education. Now in the first place, we have from three to five months free schools for the purpose of educating pupils from six to twenty years in the common branches, for which the teachers receive $1.40 per capita. But in some cases the per capita is swelled a little by the patrons, who feel willing to give a teacher a reasonable compensation for his services. If to the amount of money which has been collected from all sources were added the per cent. that is justly due the children of this State it would make the month school so large that it would enable some districts to have from eight to ten months school taught instead of five. As it is we have but five months schools in which the teacher's pay is but little and the pupil not advanced much. Why? Because the teacher gets their rights straightly the term expires and we have no more school for several months, unless by subscription, when, if all moneys which are set apart by the laws of this Commonwealth were so disbursed in defraying the expenses of the school we could have a better corps of teachers, pay better salaries, have more lengthy seasons and better schools.

I noticed an item in your paper some time since, that a suit had been entered against the Auditor for the amount of $100,000, which, which should have been paid over to the school fund, but he had failed to do so when it was his duty according to the laws of the State. Now how can he be relieved of this mistake by an act of the Legislature? I think it can only be done by the laws which control the public fund of this State, which is the only and right way to settle the matter. I do not mean to say that the Auditor knowingly made the mistake, but according to rumor the mistake was made, and it ought to be settled according to justice. There is a teachers' friend in the city of Frankfort, who has ferried out this mistake and should be successful in having the matter settled in favor of the poor children of this Commonwealth, he certainly would be entitled to the lasting gratitude of all who are interested in the schools of the State.

I notice a call for the teachers to meet at the Court-house on the 22d inst., at 2 p. m., to discuss this subject, and am very sorry that I cannot avail myself of the opportunity to meet with those who have been paid over to the school fund on that day, but hope that all other teachers of the county will be present.
